City-Based Veterinary Innovator Eyes Global Growth and Diversification

Aiming to manufacture veterinary medicines of sorts Aditya Devadhar, Managing Director of Adisan Laboratories, founded the company in 2008 with Dr. Suvannarekha Devadhar. Overcoming many challenges, they expanded into various segments, becoming a leader in ectoparasiticides, spot on, poultry disinfectants, and oral liquids. Adisan, based in Pune, Maharashtra, holds GMP certification and ISO

9001:2015 accreditation. Later, after a few years, Aditya's business acumen propelled the company's turnover substantially. The company, primarily B2B-focused, now supplies top pharmaceutical giants globally.

Adisan's uniqueness lies in its strategic location, diversified product range, well-equipped labs, and proactive customer approach. His ethical vision attracted international customers, leading to substantial growth. Adisan became among the key player in India's veterinary healthcare market.

With an optimistic outlook, Aditya envisions Adisan as a prominent domestic veterinary medicine manufacturer and plans international expansion. Their future goals include WHO GMP certification, ointment and bolus manufacturing, achieving a 100 Cr topline, exporting to 50 countries, and filing an IPO by 2026. Adisan's commitment to quality reflects in its comprehensive quality policy, positioning it for continued success in the evolving veterinary healthcare landscape.

The tech entrepreneur who transformed farming by sowing seeds of change

Gramik, founded by Raj Yadav, a former marginal and landless farmer's son, is making waves in the agricultural sector. Raj Yadav embarked on a mission to strengthen and transform rural communities through Gramik. Growing up in a family facing the challenges of agriculture firsthand, Raj, the first software engineer from his village, witnessed the struggles farmers endured. In 2021, his vision materialized with Gramik, now a thriving enterprise earning over Rs. 100 crore. Gramik focuses on providing quality farm inputs, promoting Good Agricultural Practices (GAP), and imparting expert knowledge, technical innovations, livelihood, and business skills to farmers, women, and rural youth.

Operating in Maharashtra and Uttar Pradesh, Gramik collaborates with over 3 lakh farmers and 500 village-level entrepreneurs, known as Peer Partners. The organization sources seeds, fertilizers, and farming tools directly from manufacturers, offering them to farmers at affordable prices. By ensuring fair prices for produce and advising on cultivating lucrative crops, Gramik creates a win-win situation for both the organization and the farmers.

With a team of 200 individuals, including farming experts and tech professionals, Gramik is rapidly expanding. Last year, the organization earned Rs. 70 crore, and this year's revenue has already surpassed Rs. 100 crore, marking a remarkable journey toward sustainable rural development.

Shree Constructions: Pioneering Innovation in Real Estate

In the ever-evolving landscape of real estate, Shree Constructions stands as a beacon of innovation and quality. As featured in Economic Times, the company's commitment goes beyond building homes; it is about curating an enduring experience for a lifetime.
